

SPECIAL LAWS ON THE RIVER

Fish And Game Committee Will Report Favorably To Permitting Fishing Year Round In The Rock And Lake Koshkonong.

VICTORY COMES AFTER HARD FIGHT

Bills Were Stated For Killing In The Committee--Other Business Of The Legislature--Automobiles Will Be Restricted.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 13.—Unless the assembly or the senate kill the report of the fish and game committee the Janesville and Lake Koshkonong fishermen will be allowed to fish with a hook and line all the year round in the future.

After Hard Fight
This is the result of the hard work on the part of Assemblyman Fisher from Janesville, who has been most active in having bills which he introduced with this in view, given a favorable report. It is understood this morning they will be reported favorably.

Was Opposed
The fish and game committee heard arguments on this proposition several times and the measure was practically killed in the committee, only to be revived. It includes the waters of the river in Rock county and Lake Koshkonong in Jefferson and Rock counties.

DEPUTIES' CHAMBERS SCENE OF RIOTING

Twice Adjourned To Get Away From Absolute Fighting With Fists By Deputies.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, May 13.—There were wild scenes in the chamber of deputies this afternoon when the government ministers were in the midst of the attack by the opposition. The stand taken by the postmen had many warm supporters.

The uproar became so fierce that M. Brisson, president of the chamber, clapped his hat on his head as a sign the session was closed.

The tumult, however, continued. One of the delegates bounded over the presidential chair, grabbed the hat and rang it furiously.

Then socialists began singing "Internation" to which royalists standing on chairs replied by singing "Vive Henry Fourth."

Finally the public and press galleries were cleared, but there was still a riot in the chamber. Outside in the corridors several persons who raised the cry "Vive La Roi" were almost mobbed.

After hours of intermission the session resumed, but socialists soon were on the verge of fighting with the radicals and the sergeant-at-arms was again forced to intervene.

CARPENTERS STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES

Twenty Green Bay Union Men Leave Work Because Contractors Refuse To Comply With Demands.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Green Bay, Wis., May 13.—Over one hundred carpenters went on a strike this morning because of the refusal on the part of about twenty contractors to meet their demand for a minimum wage scale of 30 cents an hour. The union had a special meeting last night which resulted in the strike this morning. There are about three hundred carpenters in the city.

PARIS STRIKERS ARE NOT AS CONFIDENT

Number Is No Greater and Many Return To Their Work Again This Morning.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, May 13.—The number of striking government employees shows no appreciable increase this morning and the services are normal, and at some places, notably Bordeaux, the telegraphers who went out yesterday have returned to their posts. The authorities are confident the strike will be over in a few days. On the other hand leaders of the strike claim the government is "bluffing" and declare the movement will extend rapidly.

TELEPHONE MESSAGES WITHOUT ANY WIRES

Wireless Communication Between Chicago and Milwaukee Is Easily Picked Up.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., May 13.—The wireless telephone between Chicago and Milwaukee was in operation today. The first message received in Wisconsin was picked up at the office of the Milwaukee Journal. The message came without falter or hesitation and was clear and distinct.

It has been announced that all ill-advised suits against corporations will be dropped and that hereafter they will not be molested.—News Item.

FORMER OPPONENTS ON OLD BATTLEFIELD

Survivors Of Spotsylvania Battle Gathered Together Today To Dedicate Monument.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Fredericksburg, Va., May 12.—North and South came together today on the Spotsylvania battlefield, but the warriors of the blue and the gray were not there for the purpose of battle. They were there to dedicate a monument to the soldiers who fought the battle of Spotsylvania on May 12, 1862. The gathering today was one of peace, an informal reunion of the veterans who took part in the great battle.

The chief participants in the gathering were the veterans of the 116th New Jersey regiment and the Fourteenth Georgia regiment, who faced one another at Bloody Angle on May 12, 1862. The New Jersey veterans came to dedicate a monument erected on the battlefield and to present to the survivors of the Georgia regiment the battle flags captured in the historic conflict.

CHURCH GATHERINGS IN SOUTHERN STATES

Five Great Organizations Of Baptist Church and Kings Daughters Of Georgia Meet.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Louisville, Ky., May 13.—The general convention of the Southern Baptist church assemblies in this city today and will continue in session for five days. Several thousand delegates have already arrived. No set program has been arranged for the convention, but all the church work, which is the basis of the Baptist Church South, the Home Missionary Society, the Southern Missionary Society and the Sunday Schools' Publication Society, will be reviewed. All the prominent divines and laymen of the church are expected to be present at the convention, which is the largest delegated body in the world.

Kings' Daughters Convention.
Atlanta, Ga., May 13.—Delegates from all over the state have arrived in the city to attend the annual convention of the Georgia division of the Kings' Daughters. The convention has its formal opening in the Second Baptist Church this evening and the sessions will continue over Friday.

NO GAIN MADE UNTIL MILK IS ALL TESTED

Campaign Against Tuberculosis Will Never Be Successful Until Other Steps Are Taken.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., May 13.—That the vigorous campaign against tuberculosis has failed to check the great white plague was the startling charge made today by Nathan Straus, the New York philanthropist, at the annual meeting of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis here today. The abolition of tuberculosis will begin, he asserted, when it is made a crime to sell milk unless it comes from a tuberculin-tested herd of cows or has been properly pasteurized.

VETERANS OF FOURTEENTH TO HOLD THEIR REUNION

Fond du Lac, May 13.—Arrangements are being made for the 22nd annual reunion of the 14th Wisconsin Volunteer Regiment to be held here June 8, 9 and 10.

MRS. ROBERT J. BURDETTE IS STRICKEN (ILL LAST NIGHT)

Wife of Prominent Los Angeles Minister Reported in Critical Condition.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Los Angeles, May 13.—Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, wife of Rev. Robert J. Burdette of the Temple Baptist church, was stricken critically ill last night.

WORK ON CAPITAL MAY BE RETARDED

$100,000 Fire in Madison Today Destroyed Much of the Costly Material of Capitol Building.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 13.—Fire in the J. H. Findorff building this morning caused a $100,000 damage and threatened the destruction of a large portion of Madison. Much costly material for the new capitol was destroyed.

STRANGE DISCOVERY OF LAPSED CONTRACT

Found That Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Road Has Forfeited Right to Do Business in State.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 13.—Discussion of the 122nd bill before the assembly to extend to foreign railroad corporations the same right of condemnation that is possessed by a domestic company has unearthed the fact that the license to do business in this state of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company was forfeited in 1906. The secretary of state has called the attention of the attorney general to the matter to ascertain whether the action of forfeiture was proper and if so whether the right to do business within this state is authorized.

The records of the secretary of state show that the Burlington road filed a copy of its articles in 1901, but that these were forfeited during the administration of W. L. House on April 1, 1906, for failure to file its annual report of stock and business done in the state. Section 1770 provides that "No corporation, except railroad corporations, shall transact business" or require property until it shall have filed articles with the secretary of state. Under this section as amended every foreign corporation which has filed a copy of its articles or charter shall annually make a report. The law further provides that the amount required to do business shall be determined from computations based upon this report.

The secretary of state raises the question for the attorney general to answer as to whether this last section "which makes no exceptions is intended to cover railroads."

Under recent decisions of the supreme court it is believed that either the forfeiture of the right of the Burlington road to do business was incorrect and the record should be corrected, or the road will have to incorporate under the laws of this state. Most of the railroads operating in the state are incorporated as domestic concerns paying a filing fee of $1 per $1,000 on capital stock. It is probable that the opinion of the attorney general will either compel the railroad to file its annual statement and pay an annual fee or to file articles as a regular domestic corporation. The discovery of the forfeiture record of the Burlington has resulted in a general examination of the articles of the other roads, but no further forfeitures have been discovered.

PROMINENT "MEDICS" AT NEW YORK SCHOOL

Homeopathic Physicians From All Over Country Take Part In Commencement At Metro. College.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, May 13.—Scores of prominent homeopathic physicians from all sections of the country have gathered in this city to take part in the 40th annual commencement and celebration of the New York Homeopathic Medical College. In the fifty years since its organization the college has grown to be one of the largest and foremost medical institutions of the metropolis. The present meeting of graduates and other interested persons is to discuss plans for an elaborate celebration of the college's semi-centennial next year. Tonight the commencement exercises take place and tomorrow night the celebration will conclude with a big banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria, at which a number of prominent speakers will be heard.

DID NOT CHANGE THE LAST YEAR'S FIGURES

Local Street Car Line To Pay Same State Taxes As In The Past—The General State Taxes Named.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 13.—While the valuation of the street and interurban property of Wisconsin is substantially increased by the state board of assessment announced today, the property of the struggling Janesville street railway is allowed to stand at the same figures as last year, $37,000.

Last year the Janesville company paid $775.95 tax, of which $63,850 was retained by the state and $32,633 was paid to localities through which the line operates. The Rockford & Interurban company is valued at $225,000 this year, the same valuation as was fixed last year upon the final assessment. Last year that company paid $2,396.15 tax, of which $609.42 was retained by the state and $2,386.73 distributed to the localities through which the line operates.

STATUE IN HONOR OF FAMOUS PIONEER

Arrangements For Unveiling Of Memorial Of Revolutionary Hero Are Completed.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Quincy, Ill., May 13.—All arrangements for the unveiling of the George Rogers Clark statue, erected here through an appropriation made by the Illinois legislature, the statue has been set up in Riverside Park, a picturesque site overlooking the Mississippi river. The total height of the memorial is twenty-two feet. The statue is of a bronze figure standing against a massive granite monolith. It represents an officer of the revolutionary army, and intense character is suggested in the figure by the sculptor, Charles J. Mulligan of Chicago.

NEW LEAGUE IN WESTERN CANADA

Winipeg, Man., May 13.—Following weeks spent in preparation and practice, the newly organized Western Canadian Baseball league starts on its first championship season today. Edmonton opens in Calgary, Medicine Hat in Lethbridge, Regina in Moose Jaw and Brandon in Winnipeg.

U. S. NOT DONE YET WITH SUGAR TRUST

Federal Grand Jury Will Be Charged By Deputy Attorney-General To Return Indictments.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, May 13.—The Federal grand jury which was sworn in today will be asked by Special Deputy Attorney-General Henry L. Stimson, on behalf of the United States, to find indictments against any officers or employees of the American Sugar Refining Company, commonly known as the Sugar Trust, who have been guilty of criminal acts in connection with defrauding the Government of huge sums by tampering with the weighing scales so as to reduce the amount of customs duties paid by the company. This means that those responsible for the alleged frauds are not to be relieved from criminal prosecution, despite the fact that the company has been fined $14,000 and has agreed to make restitution of $2,000,000 more, a total of $2,151,000.

MAKE NO CHANGE IN PRESENT SYSTEMS

County Superintendents Will Be Elected as in the Past for the Next Two Years.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 13.—The present legislature will make no change in the system of election of county superintendents of schools. After a thorough discussion last night of the Vebahn bill to abolish the present elective system and substitute a system of appointment of the superintendent by a county school board of five members, the bill was killed by a vote of 40 to 26.

Another fatality occurred when the vote was reached on the bill, as some committee's bill to prohibit the killing of all ducks and other aquatic fowl until September 1, 1912. This vote was 40 to 26. Immediately after the spring shooting bill was killed some weeks ago, the fish and game committee got enthusiastic in sympathy of the ducks and introduced a bill to protect them absolutely for three years; some of the members of the committee wanted to make the closed season five years, but three years seemed to have likelihood of going through the gauntlet into a law.

However, last night showed that the opinions of members had changed, and the bill was killed by a vote of 40 to 26. After the death was announced Social Democrat Brookhausen facetiously remarked amid laughter, that the fish and game committee ought to adjourn sine die, this being a comment on the fact that not one measure from the consideration of this committee had been passed during this session.

Assemblyman Twiss made a good fight, but a losing one, against the present arbitrary and star chamber methods of the faculties of the university and normal schools in passing upon wayward students and suspending them. Assemblyman Twiss pleaded for the enactment of a law requiring the faculty to inform a student of his manner and the charge and give him a trial before entering judgment of guilt. Assemblyman Hambrecht pleaded for maintaining the faculties in their traditional and difficult tasks of maintaining discipline in the state schools. This view prevailed, although there was a strong sentiment apparent that the faculties should act with exceeding care in such matters. The vote killing the Twiss bill was 40 to 26.

Two pure food bills were advanced, defining sausage, and requiring the true labeling of the ingredients of jellies, jams and fruit butters. Assemblyman Zimmerman resurrected and secured the engrossment of a bill which provides that after 22 years' service in the Milwaukee police department shall have the choice of remaining on light duty or retiring on a pension, if they are 55 years of age. Death was dealt to the Chapple bill requiring the showing of a receipt for payment of poll tax before a man should be allowed to vote.

The application of the ad valorem system of taxation of street railways companies of the state has increased their taxes on an average of more than 30 per cent as compared with the amounts paid by them under the old license fee system. If the preliminary assessment announced yesterday of $27,240,000 is adhered to the companies will pay a total tax of $125,711.60 as compared with $399,637.75 last year. This is the second year that the street railways have been taxed under the ad valorem system, according to the value of their property instead of upon the basis of gross earnings. Under the law now in force 15 per cent of the total tax collected is retained by the state. This amounted to $68,605 last year and under the present preliminary assessment would amount to $63,850. The other 85 per cent is distributed proportionately among the towns, villages and cities through which the lines operate according to the valuation of the property in each of the localities. Under the old license fee system the state received but 7 per cent. In 1907 this amounted to $32,207. The possible increase this year over the old license fee system in its last year will be about $4,500.

The preliminary assessment announced yesterday now is subject to further hearings by the different street car companies and may result in some reductions. It is expected that the final assessment will be announced early in June.

The value of the greatest trolley system in the state, the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company, is $22,000,000 under the preliminary assessment as compared with the final assessment last year of $21,250,000. The Milwaukee Traction and Light company is valued this year at $2,500,000 as compared with $1,800,000 last year. The Milwaukee Northern is valued at $1,575,000 as compared with $500,000 last year. The present assessment is as of June 30, 1908, this date marking the end of the fiscal year.

Among some of the other valuations in the latest report are: La Crosse Street railway, $450,000; Duluth Street railway, $775,000; Chippewa Valley railway, $775,000; Winnebago Traction company, $500,000; Rockford and Interurban, $225,000; Southern Wisconsin railway (Madison), $700,000; Janesville Street railway, $37,000; Green Bay Traction company, $775,000; Chicago and Milwaukee railway and Fidelity Trust company as receiver, $110,000, and Sheboygan Light, Power and Railway company, $640,000.

KANSAS MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Former Lieutenant Governor Loses Life When Machine Throws Party Over Embankment.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SERVICES HELD AT 10:30 TODAY

FATHER L. J. VAUGHAN LAID AT REST THIS MORNING.

BURIED AT MOUNT OLIVET

Beautiful And Impressive Solemn
High Mass Said at St. Mary's Church.

All that was mortal of the late Reverend L. J. Vaughan was tenderly laid at rest in Mt. Olivet cemetery this morning after services were held at St. Mary's church. Sorrowing priests, relatives and friends followed the body to its last resting place in the peaceful Catholic cemetery after the beautiful church service had been said.

Tribute was paid to the memory of the departed in a manner most fitting and many from his former parish.

THE LATE FATHER L. J. VAUGHAN

James at Altona and Cuba City as well as friends who were not Catholics were present at the church services and were part of the funeral procession to the cemetery.

The services at St. Mary's church today began at half past nine o'clock with a recitation of the offerings. This was followed by solemn high requiem mass at 10:30. In the absence of Bishop Schwaibach, under whose charge Father Vaughan labored, Rev. Walter Vaughan, a second cousin of the deceased, was the celebrant. Father James Harlan of Algerton, his successor at Altona, the subdeacon, Father Snyder of Corlies acted as master of ceremonies. The funeral address was delivered by Father Bennett of Kaukaune, Ill.

Very impressive. The mass services were very impressive, twenty-seven priests, in all, taking part. About fifteen hundred people from the Catholic congregations of this and other cities and from churches of other denominations, as well as gathered to pay tribute to this devoted man. The Catholic societies of the Catholic Order of Foresters, the Knights of Columbus, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians, were present in a body. The musical part of the exercises was given by the St. Mary's church choir, Professor W. T. Fife presiding at the organ.

In his sermon, Rev. Fr. Bennett of Kaukaune eloquently eulogized Father Vaughan, setting forth his many qualities as an example for others to follow. "The Knights of Columbus," he said, should, by doing as he had done, become keepers of the keys of Christ and win for themselves the title of "The Defenders of the Faith." The text of his discourse was chosen from the gospel of John, the fifteenth chapter, and the sixteenth verse, where Christ instructs his apostles in the work they are to do after his death and ascension. The text is: "Ye have chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain."

Imbued With Spirit. Said Fr. Bennett: "We see the change that comes over a young man when he becomes imbued with the spirit of Christ. He grows up unknown to the world and remains so, but when the apostolic power comes into his personality, behold what a change comes over him. He is imbued with the spirit of God, standing at the throne of God he merely whispers the words of God, but the power from above comes down and dwells there. Such a man as this we have known and loved. Rev. Gabriel met him twenty years ago and took him up and guided, schooled and fathered his entrance into the priesthood.

Born After War. "Latter-day J. Vaughan was born just at the close of the Civil war. It would seem that just when people were praying for a God of Peace to end the war, this child of Peace was born as an answer to their prayers. The scene of his birth is also auspicious. Near Fond du Lac was where the early Catholic priests first began their labors with the Indian tribes of northern Wisconsin. Perhaps the spirit of Marquette came to earth and breathed into this child living in the cradle, some of the eloquence and that spirit which Father Gabriel discovered.

Called to Church. "It might appear that Father Vaughan was called from a most unlikely career, but under the careful guidance of the Christian Brothers he became an ardent, devoted and successful missionary. His lectures were sermons in themselves. In them he showed, Christianity, Christ and the Christ life in the apostles of Christ, the priests and the nuns. His books and plays have the uplifting influence of a Christian life. His sympathetic nature served to bring out the best in everyone whom he knew. He wormed himself into your sympathy, your thoughts and your life, and showed you who knew him, what you should be. Every man was to him as a brother.

"Father Vaughan was a wonderful success as a missionary and had won the adulation of five thousand people yet it pleased God in His wise plans to take the Father from us. Blessed be he that makes the church known and loved as Father Vaughan has made it.

"Let his life be an example to you."

Taken to Grave. After the services the remains were taken from the church to the grave in Mt. Olivet cemetery. The funeral procession to the cemetery consisted of two orders of the church, the Knights of Columbus leading, then the Catholic Order of Foresters followed by the hearse and a long line of hacks and carriages, the entire line being about a quarter of a mile in length. The honorary pall-bearers were: Dean E. E. Kelly; Fr. J. J. McGuire, of Richland Center; Fr. M. J. Condon, Oregon; H. C. Hengel, of Madison; and George Landman, of Cedarburg. The pall-bearers were: John Cullen, Toronto Nelson, John Nolan, Joseph Connors, N. A. Pound, and John Campbell.

Visiting Priests. The priests from out of town who were here for the funeral were: Fr. J. Hartman, of Fox Lake; Finn, of Rockford; Pias, of Berlin, Wis.; Henry Peller, of Altona; Kinnoy, of Black River Falls; Solon, of De Kalb, Ill.; Bennett of Kaukaune, Ill.; McGuire, of Richland Center; Walter Vaughan, Lyons, Iowa; Snyder, Corlies; Ward, Beloit; Devlin, Austin, Minn.; McCarthy, Port Atkinson; Buckley, Delavan; Michael and James Condon, Oregon; Fitzgerald, Evansville; Harlan, of Edgerton; McDevitt, Whitewater; J. O'Keefe, and N. Meyer, Mineral Point; Rev. J. L. Mathey, of Mt. Pleasant; H. E. Hengel, Madison; J. Loughney, Cedarburg, Wis.

Altona Visitors. The Altona church of which Father Vaughan was formerly pastor, was represented by Mr. and Mrs. B. Keating, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keating, Thomas and Mrs. Burns, Mrs. M. Colman, Mrs. W. Dabblington, and Mrs. P. Callan.

Met at Depot. The remains of the late divine arrived in the city last evening on the 9:50 train from Cuba City. They were immediately taken from the train to the hearse and the funeral procession, led by six of the Knights of Carroll Council, Knights of Columbus, followed by the body and the mourners from Cuba City, made its way slowly to the church.

Crowds at Depot. When the train came in last night, the party accompanying the remains was met at the North Western station by a crowd of between two hundred and fifty and three hundred people including the Knights of Columbus and the members of the A. O. U. John Campbell, Peter Webber, Philip Reins, Anton Hannauska, Peter Nussler, and M. J. Brennan acting as pall-bearers.

Besides the members of the society many others followed the procession to St. Mary's church. The remains were conveyed into the church and the "de profundis" was performed by Dean E. E. Kelly, Fathers McGuire, Toeller, Harlan, Walter Vaughan, Snyder, and Gombel. The body lay in state last night.

Lay in State. Through passed through the church during the evening to view the remains of their beloved priest, members of the Catholic Order of Foresters, Knights of Columbus, A. O. U., Knights of Wisdom, and Knights from Cuba City and Altona keeping watch during the entire night. The body lay in state Monday at Dubuque and Tuesday at his parish at Cuba City where the members of his church paid every tribute.

Father Vaughan is survived by three sisters and one brother. They are Mrs. Josephine True, of this city, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Traynor and Henry Vaughan. Besides these his loss is mourned by hundreds in this city and the parishes where he has been in charge.

Many Visitors. From Cuba City a large number of people accompanied the remains here to attend the services and interment. Among them were: John Donahue, Worthy Grand Knight of the Cuba City Council, Knights of Columbus; Arthur Doyle, Herman Fiedler, George Vosburg, M. J. Condon, John Burns, Albert Schellmoire, Charles Hottelmay, Will Diehlman, Barney McGaughey, Clyde Turnbull, and Bernard Conlon; the Mesdames C. Mahoney, McCann, Kouny, Koller, and the Mesdames Doyle, Margaret Doyle, Della and Margaret Byrne, Margaret Lulek, Callista and May Kouny.

Time of Reflection.

In time of sickness the soul collects itself anew.—Pilate.

ANOTHER TRIAL TO REACH
NORTH POLE IN BALLOON

New York.—Walter Wellman is to leave here early next week for Danes Island, Spitzbergen by way of Paris, from which point a second attempt will be made by him to reach the north pole by means of a dirigible balloon. The expedition will start in August and the same general plan of operation will be held in as on his first attempt. He has named his dirigible the "America," and this time it is owned and operated as a private enterprise.

The America is the second largest dirigible balloon in the world, being only smaller than the Zepppelin. It has a lifting capacity of 10 tons. It will carry a crew of three men, food for two years, sledges, dogs, life boat, 6,000 pounds of gasoline and everything necessary for a slogging trip should that be required.

In the Wrong Place.

It was not until three batsmen in suspension had struck out that a disgruntled patron in the bleachers yelled: "Hey! You muffs oughta be up here. You're nothing but fans."

MARATHON AS IT WAS AND IS
The first Marathon ever run and Henri St. Yves, holder of the latter-day Marathon record.

By HENDRICK.

Marathon racing has become so popular and modern a field and so thoroughly professionalized as to rob it in the average mind of its true historic significance. As a matter of fact, the Marathon race of today has a more honorable line of ancestors than any other modern sport. It can precede even the historic Olympic games in its lineage.

The first Marathon ever run was in 490 B. C. It took its name from the eastern coast of Attica, about 20 miles northwest of Athens. This village still survives the ravages of time and is recognizable today, as shown on the accompanying map, by the village of Marathon. Marathon was situated in a plain of the same name, about six miles in length and three in breadth, with a background of mountains in the west and a marsh both on the north and south. Eastward it reached the sea. Byron's lines correctly describe it.

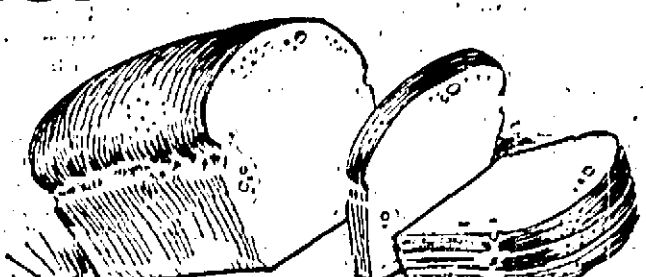

"The mountain look on Marathon, And Marathon upon the sea."

BLEACHED BREAD

Causes Stomach Trouble, Dyspepsia and Gastritis

Government experts, after a most careful examination of Bleached Flour (the whitened kind generally in use) find it contains peroxide of nitrogen. The U. S. Government Pure Food Commissioner has ruled "The bleaching of flour is a violation of the Pure Food Law of 1906 and will have to be discontinued within a short time." Never eat bread or pastry made of bleached flour. Don't wait to change. Do it now.

Use only MARVEL Flour. It is made in the good, old fashioned, natural way, unbleached, from best wheat, is pure and wholesome and retains all the strength and nutrition in the wheat. It makes Bread, Cake and Pastry that is most palatable and healthful and is far more economical for your use than Bleached Flour.

For sale by all Grocers. When you buy Baker's bread insist on its being made of MARVEL Flour. It costs no more and is pure and healthful.

Latest picture of Minister Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese representative at Washington.

Chicago—Minister Wu Ting Fang, attracted more attention at the recent peace conference than any other individual. This humorous, brilliant man from the orient, garbed in his native dress, presented an unusual picture, and his brief speech at the conference carried the house through a humorous talk to a storm of applause. The picture was taken as he was leaving the convention hall surrounded by a number of his friends.

Irish Magistrate's Way.
Nearer seven foot tall than six was the father of the present earl of Enniskillen. He was a magistrate and a mighty fox hunter. He used to come to the "justice room" ready dressed for hunting quite early in the morning, in order to hear cases before he started off to the meet. His practice was to hear the plaintiff and then horsewhip the defendant, abusing him for behaving in such a blackguardly manner. Then he heard the defendant and afterward horsewhipped the plaintiff. It is said that both parties left the court perfectly satisfied, each saying that the other had been horsewhipped by his honor.

Blessings of a Diet.
Nowadays it's a godsend for a man to get rheumatism. Instead of filling him up with salicylic acid, iodine of potash and other atrocities to tear out his insides, intelligent physicians put him on a diet. When they cure him of being a hog they cure him of his rheumatism and everything else from a murderous liver to the disposition of a fiend.—New York Press.

Sure of Himself.
The opposing candidates resorted to blows. Friends rushed in to separate them. Each struggled to get at the other. Candidate No. 1, seeing the extremely violent efforts of Candidate No. 2, cried out: "More of you men hold Swanson! One man can hold me!"—Everybody's.

MAJ. GEN. BELL

GENERAL WOOD TO SUCCEED BRIGADIER GENERAL BELL AS CHIEF OF STAFF.

Washington, D. C.—The next 12 months promise to be memorable for the many important changes in the army. Many of these changes will occur in the regular course of events, and may be discounted, but others are still somewhat unsettled and consequently open to speculation.

Prominent among the things that are settled is that Major General Leonard Wood, now in command of the military department of the east, with headquarters at Governors Island, N. Y., will be next chief of staff of the army. General Wood will succeed Major General J. Franklin Bell, whose resignation to his present office was announced immediately after the inauguration of the new administration. General Bell, however, has decided to remain here but a few months, and before next spring he will be transferred to Manila, where he will have command of the troops stationed in the Philippines.

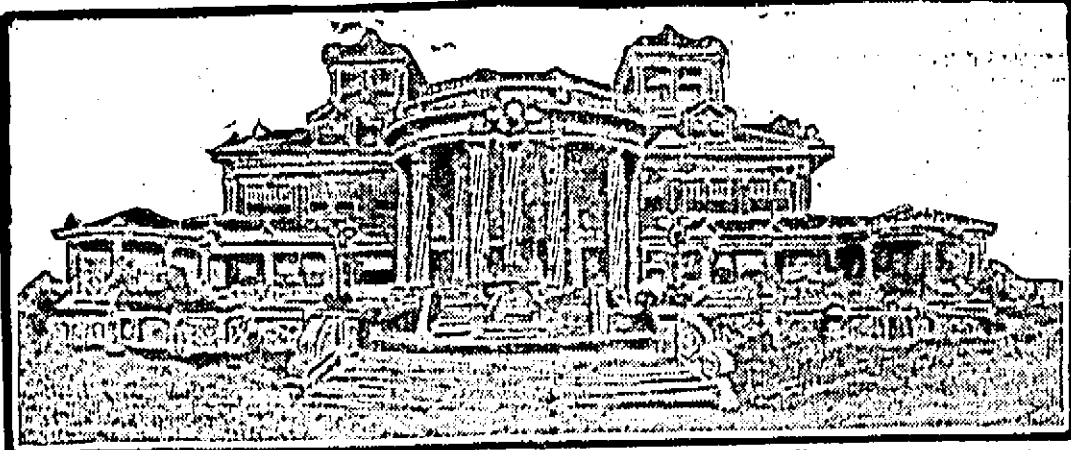

Until General Bell was appointed the office of chief of staff, which is regarded as the most important office in the army, was favorably filled by the officer of highest rank. Lieutenant General Young, Chaffee and others held that office in succession, and the appointment of General Bell followed the request of Lieutenant General Henry C. Corbin to be assigned to the command of the southwestern division at St. Louis, instead of to the office of chief of staff, to which his rank naturally entitled him. General MacArthur succeeded General Corbin as lieutenant general, but as he was not on the list of terms with Secretary of War Taft, with whom he seems to have disagreed when they were together in the Philippines, it was deemed best to make no change in the office of chief of staff for his benefit.

No such reasons apply, however, to the case of General Wood, who is a warm personal friend of President Taft. General Wood likewise enjoyed high favor with President Roosevelt. Two years ago, it was decided that Lieutenant General MacArthur, the senior officer of the army, should go into practical retirement and fill out the remaining years of his career on the active list at his old home in Milwaukee writing his observations of military affairs in the Orient, principally in India. General Wood, upon his return from the Philippines a year ago, to be assigned to the choice billet of commander of the department of the east, which in the natural course of events would have fallen to General MacArthur. And now the latter is to be retired for good early next month and General Wood will then hold the senior office of the army in full rank and service.

These changes in the army will be accomplished in 23 years what General MacArthur accomplished in 40, and other officers in quite as long a time.

General Wood's career has been one of the most remarkable the army has ever seen. He was born in New Hampshire, studied medicine, and in 1886 was appointed an assistant surgeon in the army. He participated in the Indian wars and saw considerable service. It was not until he became the family physician of the late President McKinley, however, that he was really started on the road to success.

He was captain and assistant surgeon when, with the outbreak of the war with Spain, in company with Theodore Roosevelt, he organized what was known as the Rough Riders' regiment. He later received a commission as major general of volunteers, and in 1901 was appointed brigadier general in the regular establishment.

LONG BRANCH RESIDENCE WHICH MAY BECOME SUMMER CAPITAL OF THE UNITED STATES.

Long Branch, N. J.—A movement of national importance and interest is on foot among the New Jersey cities. It is nothing less than a gift of one of its most palatial summer residences to the government to be used as the official summer home of the president of the United States. This is certainly a commendable movement. Washington is so hot in the summer that a president is not expected to remain at the White house, and yet no other place is provided.

The start has been made and the palatial home at Long Branch known as "Shadow Lawn" is being considered. It was bought recently by Joseph B. Greenhut, formerly of Peoria, Ill., and now president of the New York firm, Bulfinch & Co. The place was built by the late John A. McCall and is considered by many the finest home in New Jersey. Its cost was $600,000. Standing in a park of 58 acres, it is one of the show pictures of Long Branch. Marble and granite form the exterior, and the interior decorations are regarded as unequaled in the United States.

Parts and Signs of Goodness.
If a man be gracious and courteous to strangers it shows he is a citizen of the world and that his heart is no island cut off from other lands, but a continent that joins them. If he be compassionate toward the afflictions of others it shows that his heart is like a noble tree that is wounded itself when it gives the balm. If he easily pardons and remits offenses it shows that his mind is planted above injuries, so that he cannot be shot. If he be thankful for small benefits it shows that he weighs men's minds and not their trash. But, above all, if he have St. Paul's perfection, that he could wish to be an anathema from Christ for the salvation of his brethren, it shows much of a divine nature and a kind of conformity with Christ himself.—Bacon.

Dowries in India.
The custom of extorting dowries has grown into the very fabric of the social life and is a standing disgrace to the Bengali community, which has no justification to plead or apology to offer. The practice has now assumed alarming proportions of parents of boys extorting costly dowries as a condition of marrying their sons. The marriage of a daughter among Bengalis has become an expensive affair, and the amount in cash demanded by the father or guardian of the boy and paid by the father or guardian of the bride varies with the educational attainments of the bridegroom. The Indian Daily News published a few days ago a piteous appeal from respectable Hindu parents of dowryless daughters.—Indian Nation.

Mother States of Presidents.
The native state is often called the "mother state." Figuring the three states, Virginia, Ohio and New York, it is interesting to note that seven presidents were born in Virginia, six in Ohio and three in New York. Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, William Henry Harrison, Taylor and Tyler were born in Virginia; Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Benjamin Harrison, McKinley and Taft in Ohio, and Van Buren, Fillmore and Roosevelt were born in New York.—Oil City Derrick.

Always Enjoyable.

A recent visitor at Mattoon was strolling about the grounds when he encountered a stately and well-dressed gentleman, who inquired with perfect courtesy: "I beg your pardon, but have you any dry toast about you?" The caller intimated that at present he was without that particular form of light luncheon. Then in his turn he queried: "But would you mind telling me why you desire it?" "Not at all," responded the other, "You see I'm a soft-boiled egg, and I want to sit down!"

DIEHLS Wall Papers

The paneling of parlors, drawing rooms, etc., is, if anything, more popular than ever. This style of decoration can be readily adapted to any size or shape of room. There are numerous methods of paneling rooms. One is to use a low base and panels to fit in between doors or windows. Another effective way is to throw each wall into a complete panel, the low base being used or not used, that is a matter of fancy. Another satisfactory way of paneling is to use a two-tone effect in small figure or plain tint.

For paneling we have papers at all prices and to suit all requirements. Our designs are effective, artistic and stand out in good relief.

You will find the papers this season more pleasing than ever before.

II. H. BLISS, BUSINESS MGR.

My commission expires July 14, 1909.

come, Germany has been spoken of as the arbiter of peace or war in Europe, and people inclined to be nervous about the possibility of war would do well to look into German finances.

"Germany, like ourselves, is blessed with a system of high protection. The tariff having been screwed up as far as it will go, some other means of raising taxes become necessary. The German tariff in fact, like a number of our own duties, tends to restrict revenue rather than expand it. It is not worth while to import. Germany, however, has a deficit from last year of $15,000,000 and she is facing one considerably larger in the present fiscal year. When the German finance minister announces his expenditures he does not take the schedule though old-fashioned British course of saying at the same time where he will get the money to pay for them and who will find it. In this respect our own statesmen would feel quite at home in Germany.

"Germany insists upon having a large navy and a large army. Chancellor Von Bulow is at his wit's end to find the money to pay for them. Any one of a dozen combinations in the Reichstag can defeat any tax which he proposes, and has, in fact, beaten the proposed taxes on advertisements, electricity and gas with the greatest ease. The only possibility now is to see if the unhappy consumer has anything left to tax, and also to establish a most unpopular excise tax on beer. The property interests resist any impost on land, and the British income tax is altogether too honest and straightforward a levy to be widely popular anywhere.

"In the meantime Germany can only borrow, and is borrowing $100,000,000, of which $64,000,000 is for the empire and $36,000,000 for Prussia, the hard-worked wheel horse of the German confederation of states. This loan is floated by means of what in Germany is called a 'Konsortium,' composed of some twenty-eight banks and private banking houses. This syndicate, of course, guarantees that the government will get its money, but there can be little doubt that these bankers did not give their assistance until they were sure that the German Emperor and his militant following did not contemplate any war like parade in the Balkan peninsula or elsewhere.

"As might be supposed, borrowing to pay current expenses has reduced the imperial and Prussian credit to about the level of that of a second-rate power. The old German 3 1/2% has sold recently at 90 and the 3% at 81, or four points below British Consols, on which the interest is 2 1/2%. These prices have been improved upon lately with the aid of the bankers who are using this means to stimulate interest in the new loans. The new 3 1/2% bonds are taken by the syndicate at 94.80% and the 4% issue at 102. When it is remembered that Italy has been able to sell a 3 1/2% loan at 102 since the Sicilian disaster, it can be seen what ideas of expenditure far surpassing possible income can do for any country's credit."

Baseball fans are much interested in the prospects for the present season. Interest in the National and American league games has brought about renewed interest in local games and a city league and also an amateur city team will do much to stir the fans up.

While spring may have been delayed and some people are not certain it is here to stay, still it is time to begin thinking about the good roads of the county and the work to be done before they are put in first-class condition.

Out at the state school for the blind they have been having a sort of an inquiry which resulted in the state board doing what everyone expected they would—declaring nothing was the matter.

The legislature is really getting down to business now as the warm weather begins and the members are anxious to get back home, so as to weed their onion beds.

The transfer of ownership of the Rockford-Janesville Interurban may mean much for this city ultimately if they extend their service as is now talked of.

NAPOLEON.
If you want to read something worth while, take up General Wolseley's "The Young Napoleon."

Wolseley says of Napoleon that he was "the greatest human who ever lived."

That is a great soldier's tribute to a great soldier from a soldier's point of view.

Wolseley, "the greatest living general," points out also the weaknesses and the lack of that great human who strode the world of his day like a colossus.

In this connection the following incident of Napoleon, from a Russian source, is told by Will L. Comfort. Any one who has read Tolstoy's "War and Peace" will appreciate the number picture:

"On the battlefield of Borodino in 1806, half devoured corpses, the result of that terrible battle of the Moscow campaign.

"Death has festered here," said Marshal Ney to the emperor, who was staring gloomily at the field of the slain.

"Nay," replied Napoleon; "death has only nibbled here." After death has once festered he will sleep."

"Will we not pause to bury the dead?" the glorious marshal asked a few minutes later.

"THE WOLVES WILL BURY THEM," replied the Mars incarnate, falling asleep on his great white horse. Such was the tender mercy of this cruel great man who in 1812 led the glittering files of France across the Niemen river and invaded Russia.

Let the wolves bury the dead!

Of what use are dead men to a general? He who played the game of war with master hand regarded men as mere pawns to be placed at his imperial nod. If they are dead, let the wolves perform the offices for the dead!

The incident, which fits in so perfectly with all we know of him, gives a look into the soul of Napoleon.

Perhaps he had hopes of mercy. If so he did not reveal the fact. If he ever showed emotion it was for effect. No man knew better than he the way to the hearts of his soldiers. His bulletins are masterpieces of simulated feeling and high heroics.

Napoleon lacked the nobility of greatness. His brain was a marvelous mechanical machine, but his heart was atrophied. He was almost devoid of pity or sympathy.

"Remember the little girl that went over his battlefield, giving water to the wounded?"

She was infinitely nobler than he!

DIVORCE GRIND ON THURSDAY, THE 13TH

Five Cases Were Threshed Out Before Judge Grimm in Circuit Court Today

Five divorce cases were tried before Judge Grimm in circuit court today. The parties to four of them were from Beloit and the fifth was a Green county action. Eva Stramp obtained legal separation from Norman Stramp on the grounds of desertion and drunkenness and was given the right to resume her maiden name of Eva Laidi.

The case of Oly Benson vs. Jane Benson involved the distribution of considerable property and the couple, originally residents of the town of Avon, had 11 children, all of whom are now living. The plaintiff withdrew his complaint of cruel and inhuman treatment and the case was tried on the defendant's counter-claim for property worth $3,500 and the $4,000 homestead and the plaintiff was allowed to retain a $5,000 mortgage, $600 in cash, and two lots in Rockford worth $300. It was stipulated, however, that he should pay $10 a month toward the support of the three minor children.

The titles of the other two Beloit cases were: Lulu Amy Duller vs. George Duller, and Marie Withrich vs. Arnold Withrich.

GUN CLUB MEN IN THEIR ANNUAL SHOOT

Many Expert Shots Are Contesting For Prizes at the Fair Grounds.

Thirty-eight entries in the events of the first day of the third regular tournament of the Janesville Gun club are trying their skill with the shotgun at the fair grounds this afternoon. The first target was released at nine o'clock this morning and at three o'clock this afternoon the contestants had shot around eight times or, for those who were entered in all the events, 130 targets. The weather was ideal for a tournament of this sort, not too warm, and with a light breeze from the northwest. High gun for the day's events could not be named as only eight of the twelve entered had been run off by three o'clock.

Those competing are: McVicar, Mills, Capt. J. C. Brown, Polard, Joiner, Stoddard, Panchen, Hirsch, Imman, Ebbell, Gibson, Anderson, Graham, Nolan, Vance, Peterson, Meek, Wagner, Kibbe, Davis, Koller, Horn, Drake, Winslow, Doo, Wackerly, Olson, Hopkins, Harr, Doolittle, G. Graham, T. T. Graham, T. T. Graham, Kram, Plerson and Rot-nour.

The company of neatly uniformed young men who have for a few days been visiting the households of our city, are advertising Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, not by "taste" food demonstrations, but by presenting to every housewife a valuable 4-page cook book and other literature pertaining to culinary matters. For fifty-three years Dr. Price's has been the standard of excellence for baking powders.

PLAY THE EDGERTON BASKET BALL TEAM

Bliss, Stowe Lovejoy, Dr. Wolcott, F. F. Lewis, F. E. Lewis, Dr. W. D. Merritt, Louis Williams, F. E. Brown and Stanley Doolittle. They will leave at 4:00 p. m., returning the same evening at the same time.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Hotels Were Crowded: As early as seven o'clock last evening both of the leading Janesville hotels were crowded with guests. An unusually large number of travelmen had secured accommodations earlier in the day and the arrival of the Cuba City delegation that accompanied the football team's return to the city and the shooters who came in to attend the Gun Club tournament taxed the capacity of the two establishments.

Card Party and Dinner: Mrs. Harold Nelson and her sister, Miss Gladys, entertained a large company of ladies at a four-course dinner served at the Nelson home on South Jackson street at half past six o'clock last evening. The residence was tastefully decorated with pink roses, carnations, and ferns. Following the repast, several hours were devoted to the game of Five Hundred, the first honors being carried off by Miss Anna McKinney and the lucky number trophy, by Miss Mattie Crowley. The ladies are entertaining another company this afternoon.

Crescent Club Dance: The Crescent club gave an enjoyable dancing party at East Side Odd Fellows' hall last evening. Knott & Hatch's orchestra furnished the music and the festivities were in progress until after midnight.

Fire Was on Fire: The fire department was called this forenoon to attend to a blaze which had started on the roof of a small building opposite Kelly & Wilbur's store on Jackson street. The fire was put out with chemicals.

Up for Drunkenness: John Tall, who lives on a farm near the stone quarry, pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness in municipal court this morning. A fine of $2 and costs was imposed, but sentence was suspended until next Monday.

To Live with Daughter: William Tripp of the town of Rock, whom wife recently passed away, will make his home hereafter with his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Porter, at Cozetteville. Mr. Tripp has been a Gazette subscriber for 50 years.

SPECIAL PROGRAM GIVEN AT THE W. C. T. U. BANQUET

Members And Guests Enjoyed A Most Delightful Supper Last Evening Given to the Members.

Last evening the ladies of the W. C. T. U. held a most delightful banquet. The officers acted as a reception committee and they and the members who attended were all dressed in pure white. Miss William Baines and Miss Clara Schwartz gave a charming violin and piano solo, followed by a solo by Mrs. Nichols. George Jacobs and Mrs. Nichols then rendered a duet, after which Mrs. W. J. Whimbler, Mrs. George Miller and J. G. N. Webster gave a musical comedy that caused much enjoyment. At six-thirty the banquet was over. The tables were arranged in the form of a star, the color scheme being pink, white and green. The centerpiece was a huge basket of pink and white roses. One hundred covers were laid and Mrs. Edna Hild held the post-prandial program. Mrs. Hild gave the first toast—"The New Members"—which was responded to by Mrs. W. J. Whimbler. Mrs. West of Milton gave a talk on "Current Events" and Mrs. Daisy Athon on "The W. C. T. U." Then, the W. C. T. U. returning to the main room, a class of thirty-six was initiated by Mrs. Hild, assisted by Mrs. V. Campbell of Evansville. Each candidate was presented with the badge of white ribbon after a most impressive ceremony.

A Grand Country Home to be Sold

Never before have the people of Janesville been given an opportunity to buy such property as the H. S. Woodruff home at auction. We feel that we can safely say there is not another such beautiful spot for a home anywhere in this vicinity. The natural lay of the land with its fine view of the city and miles of fertile country is magnificent in itself. Good drainage, good well water, pure air, shade trees and hedges, with a modern house and land enough for a garden, small pasture and a little hay land is all one needs for an ideal country home. This property is likely to have had but one inquiry from Chicago since advertising this auction sale and that one party has not been here to look at the property.

No bids will be placed by the owner. We are willing so that we may settle the affairs of the estate of H. S. Woodruff.

GEORGE WOODRUFF, Adm. Janesville, Wis.

A man will be on the premises after tomorrow morning to show the place to anyone wishing to look it over.

ENGLISH REPORT JOLTS AMERICAN BEEF TRUST

John Bull Fears Swifts, Armours and Morris' Seek to Gain Monopoly.

London, May 13.—The American beef trust gets a hard jolt in the report of the departmental committee appointed in 1908 to probe the alleged combinations in the meat trade in Great Britain.

The committee concludes that while a combination exists to a certain extent between four companies in the United States, engaged in the United Kingdom, it is not at present sufficiently powerful seriously to endanger the beef trade as a whole. But should these firms, as seems possible, acquire considerable interest in the Argentine situation with regard to the meat supply of the United Kingdom might become serious.

"With such command," the report says, "of practically the whole imported live cattle and chilled and frozen beef trade, the firms composing such combination might be able to determine beef prices at Smithfield market itself and largely affect prices throughout the country."

According to the report, the representatives of the American companies in London all told the committee that they knew nothing of the conditions prevalent in the United States and, commenting on these statements, the committee says:

"The committee reluctantly is compelled to express grave doubt as to the reality of this uniform ignorance, and its assumption naturally has tended to throw doubt upon the other statements made by the representatives of these firms. It is almost incredible that Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., and the Hammond Beef Company, the last named representing the National Packing Company, should be in combination in the United States and in competition in the United Kingdom."

The committee failed to find evidence of any deliberate action on the part of the Americans with the object of destroying inconvenient rivals, and it does not think that they have yet attempted to capture or control the whole beef trade in this country, as alleged. At the same time it is satisfied that the firms mentioned consult together with regard to prices and on the amount of the supplies to be put on the market, and they fix the prices at which chilled beef shall be sold in the provinces, and furthermore, that provincial salesmen are practically bound to sell at the price daily dictated by the Americans.

BARRED FROM LEGISLATURE.

Detroit Representative Forbidden Entrance to House Chamber.

Lansing, Mich., May 13.—D. Z. Curtis, a shoe dealer of Detroit and member of the Michigan house of representatives, was asked to leave the legislative hall, and told by Speaker Campbell not to return at the present session.

Curtis, whose name was linked with that of the wife of Sidney Hall, journal clerk in the house, declares he will not leave Lansing until the session ends, and that if any legislation comes up which he regards as being vital to his constituents he will ignore the warnings of Campbell and will take his seat in the assembly.

In interviews the Detroit representative says that the alleged scandal with which his name has been connected is a plot against him. He claims that he was not ordered from the house floor, but decided to save his colleagues embarrassment and left voluntarily in view of the false rumors afloat.

BASEBALL O. K. FOR BOYS.

Playgrounds Association Gives Its Approval to National Games.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 13.—That baseball is a healthy sport for boys and should be encouraged on the public playgrounds was the decision of the Playgrounds Association of America. During the discussion of the report of the committee on athletics for boys, a question was raised as to baseball.

As the discussions were in progress the echoes of youngsters playing baseball in Junction Hollow were carried to the ears of the speakers, while across the greenward of Schenley park came the sounds of the workmen as they pushed ahead the work of erecting the grandstand in the new million-dollar baseball park of the National League.

HONOR CAPT. JOHN SMITH.

Monument to Founder of Jamestown Unveiled in That City.

Jamestown, Va., May 13.—The annual excursion to Jamestown Island of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities was signalized today by the unveiling of a monument to Capt. John Smith, on the very spot where he made history. The statue stands in front of the remodeled church, the brick tower of which is all that remains of the town founded there by Capt. Smith and his colonists. The shaft was unveiled by Joseph Bryan, III, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Bryan of Richmond.

It was appropriate that the monument should be dedicated today, as this is the three hundred and first anniversary of the founding of Jamestown by Smith and the band of Englishmen who followed him.

BURNS MONKEYS IN CAGE.

Boy Sets Fire to Straw and Seven Animals Die.

Jeffersonville, Ind., May 13.—A small boy, name unknown, threw a lighted match into a cage of monkeys which brought up the tail end of the parade of Gentry's circus in this city last night.

The cage was lit, with straw and before attendants could pull out the squalling beasts, they were cremated. There were seven monkeys, all trained. Police are searching for the boy. A crowd witnessed the affair.

New Minister from Spain.

Madrid, May 13.—It is announced that Marquis de Villalobar, first secretary of the Spanish embassy at London, will succeed Don Ramon Pina, the Spanish minister at Washington. Senior Pina goes to the foreign office as under secretary of state in place of the Marquis de Herrera, who has been appointed ambassador at Vienna.

Bids on Danville Building.

Washington, May 13.—Bids for the new federal building at Danville, Ill., were opened. M. Young & Son of Danville were the lowest of 17 bidders with a proposal of $151,000 and probably will get the award. D. H. Ryan of Danville, at $12,000, was the lowest bidder for heating and plumbing.

LANDLORDS VISIT ATLANTA.

Hotel Keepers Move Their Convention Over from Chattanooga.

Atlanta, Ga., May 13.—Scores of hotel keepers, who began the annual convention of their Mutual Benefit association Tuesday in Chattanooga, invaded Atlanta with their families today, and were formally welcomed by Mayor Maddox at a reception in the Aragon hotel. The visitors were then loaded into automobiles and taken for a ride through the principal streets and parks of the city. After inspecting the capitol and other sights, they went to Grant's park, Kimballville farm and Piedmont Driving club, and finally to E. Rivers' country home at Roxbury Springs. The feature for tomorrow will be an old-fashioned barbecue at the Cold Springs Club. In the evening there will be a cake walk and Dutch supper at the New Kimball hotel, and then the visitors will leave for Mobile.

Bishop Galloway Is Dead.

Jackson, Miss., May 13.—Bishop Charles D. Galloway of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, Mississippi's most distinguished divine and best-known publicist, who for the past 20 years has held rank among the greatest pulpits of America, died at his residence in this city after an illness of several days with a mild form of pneumonia, complicated with heart trouble.

$2,800 Wheat Crop in Canada from a Farm You can Buy for $250 Down

Let Me Prove This to You in Plain Figures

Wheat land here in the famous Weyburn Manor District of Saskatchewan, Canada, yields 35 bushels to the acre, so that with wheat at one dollar a bushel an 80-acre farm produces a crop worth $2,800.

Yet I will sell you this land for only $12 an acre and up, on easy terms—one-fourth down and the balance within five years at six per cent. So your 80-acre farm costing about $1,000 requires only $250 down—and your first crop alone should produce $2,800 or more.

Think of it—a farm of the finest wheat land in the world for less than one-tenth of your first crop.

Average Crop for 11 Years

Now for the proof in simple figures. Forty miles north of these lands the government experimental farm has kept accurate records for eleven years which show the average crop to be exactly 31 bushels and 51 pounds of wheat to an acre.

You can readily verify these figures by writing to Mr. McKay, Manager of the Experimental Farm at Indian Head, Canada, and he will also tell you that many farmers secure still larger yields because the land at the experimental farm is not by any means the best wheat land.

These records also show the actual cost of raising a crop to average exactly $7.05 an acre, so the actual net profit on each acre has averaged $27.95 for eleven years.

Two Hours More Sunshine

During the growing season the average length of daylight here is 16 hours (two hours more than in your state) so plants grow larger and faster than elsewhere further south.

Besides this the soil is virgin to any crop—just one vast rolling prairie of rich black loam resting on a clay sub-soil that retains the moisture and produces crops that simply amaze everyone with their abundance.

The climate here is delightful—often warmer than in Minnesota. The winter lasts only from December to March. The real beauty of the summer begins in July and the "Indian Summer" season is glorious beyond all power of description.

Taxes 10 Cents an Acre

Taxes on this land average less than 10 cents an acre—no tax whatever on personal property, live stock, farm implements and buildings.

The school tax, always the heaviest burden in the United States, is provided for here by a grant of one-eighth of the land by the government.

Recently the government took over the private telephone lines and since then rates have been reduced to one-third the old prices.

Railroads are being rapidly constructed and one is even now surveyed right through the center of these lands. When the road to Fort Churchill on Hudson Bay is completed, grain will reach Liverpool with a railroad haul of only 600 miles from here as compared with 2,000 miles from Chicago.

Safeguarded by Four Banks

Your investment is fully safeguarded by the four banks that I own or control in the United States. Thus you deal only with a responsible banker and are insured that every statement or promise made will be positively fulfilled.

Beginning in May, I will run excursions to this wonderful land in my private car, "The West." I want you to come in this car and see for yourself these vast wheat fields—talk with the farmers here and learn just how much they have made. Then you will want to secure a farm without a moment's delay.

Please call on my representative in your neighborhood at the address given below and ask him more about this great opportunity. Ask him for my illustrated booklet, "A Call to the West," which tells hundreds of interesting facts about this wonderful land. Be sure and go to see him at once and learn the details of this astounding proposition.

MILWAUKEE SLEUTH FOUND CLUE HERE

Woman Who Deserted Babe in Metropolis Also Left a Bottle of Camphor from Sherer's Pharmacy.

In the hope that Janesville might furnish a clue to the possible whereabouts of the handsome woman who deserted her three-month-old daughter in Milwaukee on Tuesday, Detective John S. Hammes arrived here from the state metropolis this morning with a bottle which had contained camphor and which bore a label from W. T. Sherer's drugstore.

With the clue in hand, he visited the pharmacy where it was developed, upon investigation, that the bottle had been purchased here and that the outer label had been pasted over an old one. The latter was from a Mr. Horst, a druggist, and with the aid of a magnifying glass it was discovered that the name of the purchaser had been written in as Bertha Hogner.

The woman, a very personable blonde, 25 years of age and 5 feet 5 inches tall, wearing a green suit and light waist, engaged a room at the home of Mrs. N. Smith, 202 Fifth street, Milwaukee, on Monday. She gave her name as Mrs. Becker; said that she was from Monroe; and announced that her husband was to join her there in the course of a few days.

Tuesday afternoon she left the place, ostensibly to do some shopping. When she did not return that evening the police were notified and the baby was taken to the emergency hospital.

Two bottles, one containing peppermint and the other camphor, were among the baby's effects and both bore the labels of W. T. Sherer's drugstore, Janesville.

Oddly enough, the state chemist, at whose instance a futile action was brought against Mrs. Sherer several years ago on the charge of selling spirits of camphor alleged to be below grade, resides in St. Louis.

LOCAL ELKS TO TAKE PORTAGE BY STORM?

Plan of Sending a Big Caravan of Decorated Autos to State Convention Being Agitated.

Janesville Elks have not been much in evidence at the last few state conventions, but if a plan, now under discussion, is carried out, the local lodge is destined to make something of a "splash" at the big gathering in Portage on June 1, 2, and 3. A great automobile parade is to be the feature of the convention and the suggestion which is meeting with much local favor is to send a large caravan of decorated cars from this point.

If this is done some simple uniforms or hats to distinguish the Janesville delegation may be adopted and it is possible that the band may be taken along. It is time for the place to prove up again to the power on the map of Elksdom and with a little preliminary effort a commendable showing could be made.

Link and Pin

Chicago and North-Western Boiler-maker Martin McDermott is laying off today.

It is probable that the rejuvenated engine number 19 will be broken in at the yards tomorrow as the repairs on her were nearly done this afternoon.

Fireman Erickson came down from Fond du Lac with engine 329 on the way to Chicago for repairs.

John Murphy is laying off today.

Russell Bonecy has given up his position at the roundhouse.

The car-repairers are at Jefferson today.

Switchman Ed. Horn is working nights.

The famous apple of discord which was so successful in starting a row several thousand years ago is nothing to the night switch-engine when it comes to making trouble. The latter has already set three engineers at loggerheads and each one of the three goes about with blood in his eyes and his hand in his hip pocket.

Is not allowed to award the position to the handsomest man, for then there would be no hesitation. At the present time, in order to prevent any more heart-burnings, the job has been given to those on the extra board.

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Fireman Beltz is back to work this morning on the switch-engine with Engineer James.

Work-wiper McCarthy has returned to work after laying off on account of a bad cut on his head which he received recently.

Engineer Cummings took Engineer Gregory's place on 128 this morning.

Brakeman Dan Murphy is on the C. & M. way-freight today.

CRESCENT DANCING CLUB HAS CLOSING PARTY LAST NIGHT

The "Dark Dance" Was the Favorite With the Younger Members of the Club.

Last evening at East Side Club, Janesville, the Crescent Dancing Club held its closing party of their winter and spring series. ## SOCIETY EXPERT ENDS LIFE

Former White House Clerk Shoots Self in Washington.

Washington, May 13.—Thomas H. Netherland, who until March 4 was clerk in the executive offices of the White House in charge of the president's social affairs, was found dead in his home, a suicide, by shooting.

It is stated that he suffered a nervous breakdown as a result of his strenuous work during the last two months of Roosevelt's term.

When President Taft took office Mr. Netherland was transferred to legal work at the post-office department at an increased salary. Netherland had been at the White House ten years. He was said to be the best-posted person in Washington on social precedences. He had said that he could write a most interesting book of the attempts to break into Washington society through White House invitations.

Now you can bet that Martin Hartley wasn't the only sick man aboard that train just then. There was another one and he'd been christened Solomon. When I heard that doctor say that the twin's arm was broken I gave you my word I went cold all over. Think of the grit of the fellow—the clean up and down grit of him! Rambling around, running automobiles and chasing doctors, and all that with a broken arm. And never even mentioning it. I took off my hat to that New Yorker. Crazy or not he could have my vote for any job from pound-keeper to president.

I wasn't much good, but Dr. Jordan was a whole team and the dog under the wagon. He sent me for the conductor and between us we got Hartley into the baggage car and away from the crowd of passengers.

Then we rigged up a kind of bed for him on a pile of trunks and the doctor went to work.

He got Martin's coat off and his shirt-sleeve up and had a good look at the arm. Hartley opened his eyes while the examination was going on.

"Broken, doctor, isn't it?" he asked.

"Yes," says Jordan. "Only a simple fracture of the forearm, though. We'll get off at the next station and find a comfortable place for you."

But he wouldn't hear of it. Not much he wouldn't. He was going to see that that doctor went straight to Eastwich. Said he'd had too much trouble getting him on that train to let him off it now, even if 'twas his neck instead of his arm that was cracked. There was considerable paw-wow, but finally Jordan gave in.

"All right," he says. "Needs must if the old gentleman drives. The arm is in better shape than you deserve, considering how you've treated it. I'll make a temporary bandage, but you off at your home station, and come back and set the bone as soon as I can leave the boy. Hand me that box over there, conductor, please."

With a start off a box in the baggage and pieces of Hartley's shirt, he slipped that arm as pretty as a picture. Then he rigged up a sling made of a couple of handkerchiefs, and there was the patient in pretty fair shape, considering.

When we got to Wellmouth the conductor—a mighty decent fellow, he was—held up the train while I made arrangements with the driver of the Old Home house depot wagon to take Martin to the hotel. I was for going with him, but he put his foot down on that plan in a hurry.

"No, sir!" says he. "I want you to see that the goods are delivered. You got Jordan to the school on time and find out if there's anything else you can do to help over there. Then you can come back if you want to; but don't you show your head around me till the contract is carried out. If you do—well, my right arm's in pretty good condition yet."

In spite of the pain I knew he was in he managed to pump up a grin. I grinned back, but there was a big lump just astern of my swallowing gear.

The train got to Eastwich on time, and Lord James was waiting with the team at the depot. We drove to the Fresh Air farm like we was going to a fire. Miss Talford was at the door.

"Here's the doctor," I says. "How's the boy?"

"The pain is a little easier now, we think," says she. "Come right upstairs, Dr. Jordan. It was so good of you to come. Agnes hasn't slept since he was taken ill."

I followed the doctor and the Talford girl up to the bedroom. A mighty pretty room 'twas, too; all flowered paper, and colored pictures and sunshines. But I didn't notice these things much.

Poor little Reddy! There he laid, in the middle of the big bed, his brick top shining against the pillow and loaded into the Old Home depot wagon. "He's a brick, that's what he is," says I, finally. "And he always was one. And there's one thing more I'm going to tell you that I've got my hand in, Miss Pogo. That's about that business with Washy Sparrow. Mr. Hartley wasn't no more to be blamed for that than I am."

She stopped me. "Please don't, Mr. Hartley," she says. "Please don't, Mr. Hartley," she says. "Please don't, Mr. Hartley," she says.

"I'm not going to ask you to beg his pardon for me. But will you tell him that, as soon as I can leave Dennis, I'm coming to Wellmouth to ask his

THE ELECTRICAL WORLD

A STIR AMONG THE PLANETS

Shifting Sure to Occur, Says Frederic Campbell, Sec. D. Suggests General Plan Among Them.

During the month of April there occurred such a shifting of the planets as suggests some general plan among them. On the 3d at six o'clock in the morning the planet Saturn, that marvel of the sky, adorned with its gorgeous rings of light and attended with ten satellites, made the shift from the east to the west of the sun, whereby it changed from the evening to the morning star.

On the 9th, at 11 a. m., Venus, brightest of all the stars, and nearest neighbor to ourselves, met Saturn on the west of the sun, Venus hastening to pass the sun eastward. On the 13th at four p. m., little Mercury, the fleet-footed, came eastward, rushing after Venus, and passing Saturn on the way. On the 18th the moon came along still more swiftly and, at 11 p. m., passed Saturn, and left him to the west.

On the 19th, at about 5:30 p. m., the moon overtook Mercury, and 15 minutes later overtook Venus. At ten the same evening Mercury overtook Venus and rushed on for the sun. But the moon already had gained the lead and, at 11:43 p. m., reached and passed the sun, and thus became new moon.

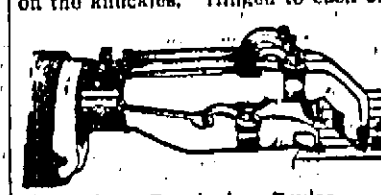

Not till the 21st, at six p. m., did Mercury accomplish the same feat and transfer its position from the morning to the evening sky. On the 23rd at noon, along came Venus and did the same thing, and the entire movement was over. The result of all was Saturn had removed from the evening to the morning sky, and that the moon, Mercury and Venus exchanged the morning for the evening sky, where they were soon discovered in the order named.

FINGER DEVELOPING DEVICE.

Contrivance Invented to Develop Muscles of All Digits in Playing the Piano.

A recent invention provides a device which may be applied to the hands of a piano player to develop the muscles of the fingers individually, so that the fingers may be able to strike the notes with a uniform blow. The device consists of a wrist band which supports a series of rods, provided at their opposite ends with pads adapted to rest on the knuckles. Hinged to each one of these rods is a short arm connected at its outer end to a stem projecting from a ring slipped over the finger. A series of weights in the form of washers are adapted to be slipped over the stem, thereby permitting the operator to adjust the weight on each particular finger. Thus if one of his fingers is weaker than the rest, it is fitted with a heavier weight so that in time the muscles will be developed to such an extent as to make it as strong as the rest of the fingers.—Scientific American.

MRS. HELEN DOYLE, OR ANNA McDERMOTT, WHO IS BEING HELD FOR TRIAL CHARGED WITH ASSISTING IN THE KIDNAPING OF WILLIE WHITTALA.

Mercer, Pa.—While James Doyle faces trial charged with the kidnaping of Willie Whittala, his wife, Mrs. Helen Doyle, or Anna McDermott, sits passively in jail awaiting developments. The immense sum of money which has been offered her to assist in defending herself has cheered her and she continues on the whole to have that defiant careless manner which has characterized her throughout the entire ordeal. She may never be tried in Pennsylvania, and if she is tried, a conviction will be hard to obtain.

This woman of mystery has led a strange life. From a student in the convent to the prison cell, through a series of downward steps, typified the transformation in her life from the sweet Anna McDermott of Chicago to the Helen Doyle in jail today. She is

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make a strong man.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine or known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
